Woofs and Books, Inc. is a newly formed, pending non-profit organization. The first fundraising event will be a Charity Golf Outing.

The mission of Woofs and Books is to promote pet adoption and reading by developing positive relationships between rescue animals and children.

The organization encourages children to read aloud and improve verbal communication with an attentive, non-critical, furry audience, and the pets improve their socialization skills, basic manners, and capacity to trust and love to improve their chances of being adopted.

Woofs and Books is located in Noblesville, IN and is comprised entirely of volunteers who receive no compensation for their time and services.

Woofs and Books' Charity Golf Scramble will take place on
